SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

Built Good Church

S. C. Presnall, Sabbath of the Buckborn work among the mountaineers of his district. Starting with two Sunday Schools and faith in God's bissuing on his work these were increased to twenty-seven Ousley County. Where he found pessimism, one maynow find Sunday Schools. The county holds an Inter-denominational Sunday School Convention and in many places where the gospel message was not heard oftener than from one to twelve months the people learn of a Savier's love Sunday by Sunday. On the heels of this work family prayer has followed and the splendid, viril, people of these mountains are progressing from strength to strength thru laborers in the Sunday SchoolSchool work.

Some of the things for which the New Ern movement is working are, mmittees to watch for anything that retards the work of the church; mily worship; a blessing at meals; training young pople for leadership, including teachers to handle classes and young peoples societies; department of organization including the question of leasons and promotion in grade schools; organized Bible class; church membership; and communieants class.

An interesting statement showed the practical side of churchmanship A bad road made it difficult for people to get to church and they overcame the difficulty by building a good one. That was certainly ap-plied Christianity which should be general all over Knox County.

MAKING A JOYFUL NOISE HERALDING WORLD'S GREATEST MISSIONARY EVENT OF THE CENTURY

At the head is Frank M. Sutchen, director. This is the first time 100 trembones ever have been organized into a single musical unit. Above, at the left, is S. Earl Taylor, director general of the celebration, of New York. At the right is W. B. Beauchamp of Nashville. Tenn., associate director general of the celebration, representing the Methodist Church South.

ONE hundred trombones, mobilized and Frank M. Sutphen, a well known two second tenors. In the center of for the Methodist Centenary Celebration in Columbus, Ohio, June 20 to July 7, will pour forth the harmony of "Hallelujah Chorue" and "Holy Chy" in the huge Collseum where the musical features of the celebration will be held.

One hundred trombones come no large and some so small that they must be made to order-will blend their music in the largest, and, so far as is known, the only choir of its kind in the world.

Being absolutely new and unique, the trombane choir has presented any number of difficulties to its organtzers, the Centenary Celebration committee. In the first place, they must find 100 trombene players within reasonable distance of Columbus. They solved this problem by mobilizing all the professional players, and completing the organization with talented amateurs. Anthony Ruppersburg was made business manager of the choir, three altos, then two first tenors, and lest organ can produce."
